The Chairman, Ann Daniels opened the meeting and explained the Martin Slinger could not be present due to a very important family commitment, Mrs Daniels explained that there is to be no public participation in the Trustees Meeting.

1. APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE

Apologies for absence were accepted from Martin Slinger.

2. TO CONSIDER THE OUTCOME OF THE PUBLIC CONSULTATION IN REGARD TO THE SITING OF A PROPOSED TELECOMS MAST ON THE RECREATION GROUND AND TO DECIDE IF TO CONTINUE WITH THE PROPOSAL OR DECLINE THE OFFER FROM SHARED ACCESS

The Chairman offered each trustee the opportunity to make comment in regard to the offer to site a mast on the Recreation Ground.

The Chairman then proposed:

“It is proposed that due to the considerable public opposition to the siting of a mobile phone mast on the Recreation Ground that the Trust does not proceed any further with the request from Shared Access”.

The proposal was seconded by James Cross and the Trustees agreed unanimously with the proposal.
